Chapter 1 by Kemo-sabi

Why is this happening to me he thought as his pace grew slow. Today started out like any other day, I showed up to work hated every second of it. I was so relieved when i got to clock out. Yet now I am running for my life. Quickly I hid behind a dumpster and quieted my breath. As my pursuer drew nearer, I heard the footsteps on the other side oh the dumpster. It got eerily quiet.

I took on a deep breath and poked my head above the dumpster and the beast was perched on top. The fiend's cat-like eyes, all black except for the slit of red, focused on me. Two small ivory horns sat above it sunken face. Its mouth hung open in a snarl to reveal jagged fangs. The creature lifted itself with its tattered pair of wings and swooped at me. I managed to dive out of the demons reach and ran down the ally only for it to lead to a dead end.

The Beast was slowly walking towards me and I began to believe I was going to die. "Not hear. Not now", he said to himself, "I'm not ready to die yet". The beast drew near. I closed my eyes fearing the end. The footsteps draw near and stopped.
